Crystallex International Corporation v. Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Dear Judge Stark,

Recently you have received letters from other Crystallex investors that our shares have been removed from our accounts as of July 13, 2023. I started a private message board called Crystallex Arbitration when the bankruptcy was filed many years ago, so that investors would have a place to discuss the issues without Robert Fung and Tenor having the ability to read our communications. This is how I know so many investors on my message board have been injured. The Reorganization Dept at Ameritrade told me that the Security, Crystallex, made a request for them to sell and remove our shares and Ameritrade complied. We as Ameritrade investors have tried with no success to get our shares reinstated, although they did this two times before and reinstated the shares of all their investors in that security. Charles Schwab, Inc. is in the process of absorbing all the accounts of Ameritrade since Schwab bought Ameritrade. All the accounts before 7-13-2013 with Crystallex shares moved to Schwab intact. All of us after that date will have accounts moved with no Crystallex shares listed. We are upset and afraid at this point wondering how we will collect our share of the award. Maybe this is the way it works as corporate officers and financiers attempt to take the entire award leaving investors penniless. I hope this does not happen to Crystallex shareholders. Thank you for your time in this matter.

Respectfully,

Greg Warren
